Discussion 06: -The 6th discussion of Andaman and Nicobar Police Study Circle was organized on 24th July, 2019 at Conference Hall, Police Head Quarters, wherein the Shri Manoj.C, IPS, SP (CID) welcomed the Director General of Police, the Chief Guest, Senior Police Officers, stakeholders from the Departments of Education, Health, Social Welfare and NGOs. He further gave an introduction on the Crimogenic factors causing delinquent behavior among youths in A&N Islands -Role of Stakeholders and requested Director General of Police A&N Islands for context setting. The Director General of Police, A&N Islands addressed the gathering that the topic ‘Crimogenic factors causing delinquent behavior among youths in A&N Islands & Role of Stakeholders’ is imperative to be discussed in order to gain better knowledge on the factor causing the delinquent behavior as well as what role stakeholder play in mitigating these causes and how to address the target group. The SP (CID) Shri Manoj. C requested the following officers for sharing their views on the theme. The following officers gave a presentation on the topic in relevance to this field of experience.

1. Dr. Mitesh Behari (Psychologists): Factors causing Delinquent Behavior among youth.
2. Dr. Kavita R Shanmughan (Psychologists): Causes of Delinquent Behaviour in youths and Role of the Stakeholders in A&N Islands

Following the presentation, the session was open for discussion in which many participants viz., NGOs, social workers, School Principals, Collage Professors and Officers from Department of Education, Social Welfare interacted and put fourth their suggestion, opinions and ideas for making A&N islands a Drug free environment.